Lapoint-Lucero

Miss Adela Lucero and Will Lapoint of Las Cruces, N. M., were married Monday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, at El Paso. The Rev. Edward Barry performed the ceremony.

The bridal party entered the church to the music of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Dixie Fasset. The music of the mass was sung by the St. Cecilia choir, with Miss Dixie Fasset at the organ.

The bride entered with her father, Jose R. Lucero, leading the bridal party. Following them were the groom and Mrs. Lawrence Lapoint, Mrs. J. R. Lucero and Lawrence Lapoint, the brother of the groom; Miss Pauline Garcia, of Las Cruces, and Prof. Cruz Alvarez, of La Union, N. M. The bridal party left the church to the music of the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white georgette crepe-de-chine, made with a long court train. Her tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Lawrence Lapoint, her matron of honor, was dressed in gray georgette crepe-de-chine, over taffeta, with a hat to match. Miss Pauline Garcia wore old rose georgette over taffeta, and a pink hat. Both carried pink carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose R. Lucero, of Las Cruces. Mr. Lucero is the ex-sheriff of Dona Ana county. The groom is the editor of the Las Cruces Citizen. He is the son of the late Lawrence Lapoint, who was the first postmaster of Dona Ana county when Mesilla was the county seat.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Zuger hotel following the ceremony. A Mexican orchestra played during the breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Lapoint will spend a few days in El Paso before returning to Las Cruces.
